>> FOR THE HOME DESIGNER

RESTORATION HARDWARE

Restoration Hardware recently introduced the first-of-its-kind compilation of 13 source books—five inspirational lifestyle books and eight categorical books. The books feature the debut of RH Leather and RH Rugs. restorationhardware.com

>> FOR THE EXOTIC FRUIT LOVER

QUINCE

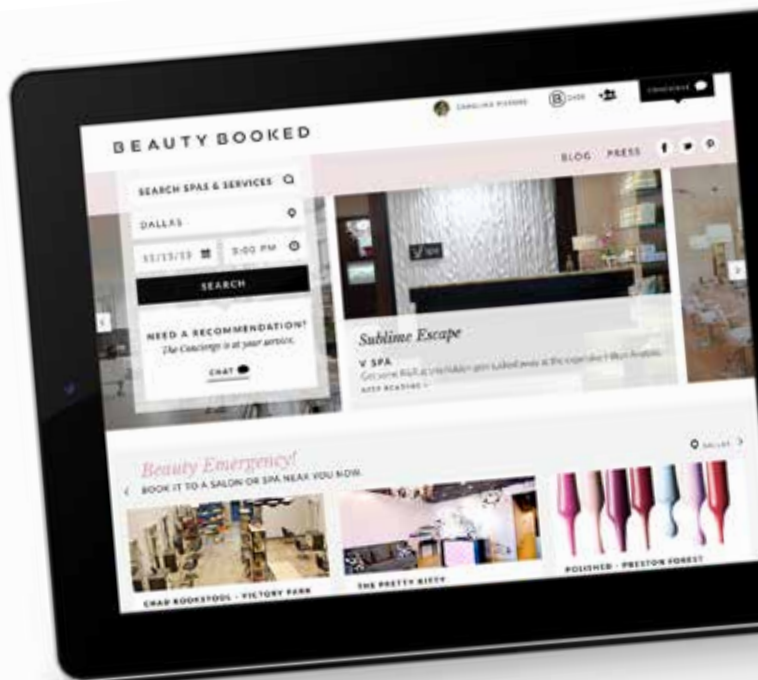

The California Rare Fruit Growers organization (CRFG) has declared 2014 the “Year of the Quince.” The book Simply Quince by Barbara Ghazarian sparked a revival five years after publication—when few in the United States knew what a quince was. The small, delicious, tree-born, pome fruit is similar in appearance to a pear and bright golden-yellow when mature. Keep your eyes peeled for the Texas version, called the “Texas Scarlet.” queenofquince.com

>> FOR THE APPOINTMENT SETTER

BEAUTY BOOKED

Popular New York-based service BeautyBooked (BB) recently launched in both Dallas and Houston. BB is the modern, convenient way to search, discover and book appointments at the best salons. Created by two industry insiders, BB simplifies the booking process by allowing members to discover new beauty spots, read expert reviews and book services instantly with just the click of a button—no receptionist needed. beautybooked.com

>> FOR THE FROZEN CREAM CONNOISSEUR

BLUE BELL

Blue Bell Creamery is getting into the July 4th spirit early this year with the release of their newest summer flavor—Red, White & Blue Bell. Consisting of three ice creams packaged side by side like Ultimate Neapolitan. In this case, it is strawberry ice cream with chunks of strawberries, vanilla ice cream and blueberry ice cream with real blueberries. With every scoop of Red, White & Blue Bell, ice cream fanatics will face a bit of a dilemma: Do you eat the flavors separately or together? bluebell.com

>> FOR THE RUM LOVER

MOUNT GAY BLACK BARREL

Longtime rum distiller Mount Gay now brings us Black Barrel, a small-batch, handcrafted blend from master blender Allen Smith. In a process called finishing, the blended rum is matured for a second time in deeply charred Bourbon oak barrels (hence the name). This wonderful new rum is great for sipping neat, over ice or mixing in cocktails. mountgayrum.com

>> FOR THE EPICURIOS

FORK & CORK

The town of Addison is excited to introduce an all new culinary event—Fork & Cork, May 16-17. Designed for the epicurious, this intimate, two-day event will bring together celebrated chefs, craft breweries, wineries and spirit makers—tempting palettes with refined culinary style. Attendees can get their hands dirty with interactive cooking classes, dive into delicious bites, and imbibe in divine cocktails, craft beers and wines. Guests can also channel their inner sommelier or brewmaster in wine and craft beer seminars. addisontexas.net

>> FOR THE BREWMASTER WANNABE

CRAFT BREW EXPERIENCE

Grapevine's 30th Annual Main Street Days, held May 16-18, is packed full of exciting events for connoisseurs who are enjoying the craft beer revolution. Attend a pre-festival experience at a local Grapevine restaurant where brewmasters and local chefs will work together creating fantastic beer and food pairings. Main Street Days will have craft beer throughout the festival as well as rare cask tapings, craft brew tasting events and experienced brewmasters giving demonstrations. grapevinetexasusa.com

>> FOR THE STYLISH TRAVELER

IVANKA TRUMP

Patras, the second collection in the Journey series inspired by Ivanka Trump's passion for travel recently launched worldwide. Named after the city in western Greece, the series is a reinvention of the artistic design from the art deco era. The jewelry line of white gold and blue gemstone pieces is appropriately reminiscent of the crystal blue waters of the Gulf of Patras. ivankatrumpcollection.com
